From the Leiden Gazette, dated Aug. 28.

Vienna, Auguſt 16.

GEneral Gronsfield is preparing to ſet out from hence the 18th to ſerve in the Army of the Empire. And the Prince of Portia will ſet forwards the middle of nextMonth, on his Ambaſſy to the Czar of Muſcovy.Some days ſince an Expreſs arriv'd from General Rebutin,who commands in Tranſilvania, with Letters for the Emperor, adviſing that he had caus'd the Count of Betlehem Chancellor of that Principality to be ſeiz'd, for holding a dangerous Correſpondence with the Emperor's Enemies.

From the Leiden Gazette dated Sept. 4.

Vienna, Auguſt 23. We ſhall ſing Te Deum here tomorrow, by way of Thanks for the great and ſignal Victory obtain'd by the Arms of the Emperor and his Allies, the 13th of this Month at Bleinheim near Hochſtet, over the French and Bavarians; and Orders are given for the like to be done in all the Towns of the Hereditary Countries. The Envoy from the Grand Signior, who has been here ſome time, has diſpatch'd an Expreſs to Conſtantinople to acquaint the Sultan with this Victory; and the Envoy of King Auguſtus of Poland, has given his Maſter Advice of it by an extraordinary Courier. The 21ſt the King of the Roman's Baggage ſet out from hence for Neuremberg; and his Majeſty deſigns to follow in a few days. Yeſterday arriv'd here from the Upper Auſtria, a Veſſel full of Bavarian Priſoners; but we do not hear yet how they will be diſpos'd of. Field Marſhal General Heiſter is entred into the County of Raab with the Body of Troops he commands, to act againſt the Rebels that are in that part of the Country. Monſieur Ratkai, who went ſome days ago to Prince Ragotski with a Commiſſion from the Elector Palatine, return'd hither yeſterday; he reports that he left that Prince in the Neighbourhood of Segedin; that meeting Count Forgats near Ketſchemet attended by a Guard of 200 Horſe, he in Diſcourſe with him endeavour'd to perſwade him to return to his Duty; But that he appear'd determin'd to the contrary, and told him, that if Prince Ragotski was inclin'd to an Accommodation, he knew how to diſſwade him from it,not for any perſonal Pique he had againſt the Emperor and the King of the Romans, but againſt thoſe who had counſel'd his Imperial Majeſty to treat the Hungarians arbitrarily. Mean time the Poſt-Maſter of Landtſchits, who came hither a few days ago,is ſent back to the Archbiſhop of Colocza, with a favourable Anſwer to the Letter he brought from him. 'Tis talk'd there will ſhortly be a Suſpenſion of Arms on both ſides; and that Orders are already ſent to Field-Marſhal General Heiſter to forbear Hoſtilities. So that we are in new Hopes of ſeeing a ſpeedy End of the Troubles of Hungary.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Sept. 9.

Vienna, Auguſt 27. The Departure of the King of the Romans, for the Army, is appointed to be on the 1ſt of September. On Sunday the 24th inſtant Te Deum was ſung, for the Victory of Bleinheim, in our Cathedral, and a Tripple Diſcharge was made of the Cannon on our Ramparts; and we are inform'd the ſame has been done at Presburg and other Places near us. We have Advice, that Field-Marſhal General Heiſter has made himſelf Maſter of the Important Paſſage of Sharowa, and that General Heiſter, his Son, who commands a Body of Regular and Militia Troops on the Frontier of Croatia, meeting a few days ago a Party of the Malecontents commanded by Count Caroli near Caniſcha, attack'd and intirely routed them, killing 900 of them on the Spot, and taking 60 Priſoners. Mean time we learn, that Count Berezeni made an Incurſion yeſterday into Moravia,and took 90 Head of Cattle and ſeveral Horſes.

The Negociation of an Accommodation with the Malecontents, has been long at a ſtand; But on the 17th a Meſſenger arriv'd with Letters from two Deputies of the Malecontents, who were with Prince Ragotski before Segedin the 13th. The Trenches had been open'd three days, and a French Ingenier had given the Prince hopes of taking that Place in ſix days more; however, he thought fit to raiſe the Siege the 14th, and was going to Gungos to meet there with his Chief Generals in the Preſence of the Archbiſhop of Colocza, in order to examine the Emperor's Declaration of the 20th of June, and the Conditions which Count Lamberg had Orders to propoſe for a Ceſſation of Arms. The Malecontents in Tranſilvania have elected Ragotski Prince of that Country.
